Texas Furniture Makers Show

The Texas Furniture Makers Show is being held October 23 through December 6, 2008 at the Kerr Arts and Cultural Center located at 228 Earl Garrett St, Kerrville, Texas. Admission is free. For hours and additional information visit www.kacckerrville.com.

Classified

Kyle Henderson is looking for shop space. He would like to build a media center and would need the shop for about 5 days. He is willing to reimburse and is experienced so no supervision is required. You can contact Kyle at kyle.r.henderson@sherwin.com

Show and Tell

Steve Jenkins brought a stool made of quarter sawn white oak he made for a restaurant featuring a curved top and slotted leg.

John Bowen showed off 2 candle lanterns he made from scraps of other projects, surrounded with glass and lined with copper.

Ross Henton brought pictures of a walnut bow-front entry table with tapered legs and zebra wood inlay. He brought a jointer plane made of spalted maple with a bloodwood sole and pin.

Bill Jacobs brought pictures of a rocking chair of walnut from a family farm in Mississippi. The wood was air dried at Woods of Mission Timber for about a year.

Show and Tell

Steve Yauch brought a Oak bowl turned using a jam chuck because a natural crack in the bottom of the piece prevented the use of a vacuum chuck.

Kirk Darroch showed off a plaque of his son's profile and name made on a CNC router.

Sidney Futrell brought some directions for sharpening hand tools and for making hand cuts from Homestead Heritage.

Bill Dale showed us some homemade wooden clamps with hand made threads, finished with shellac to protect the threads.

Thad Burnett brought pictures of a blanket chest of oak and lined with cedar. The lid of the chest features a walnut accent stripe.

Wendall Brough brought a sample of some scroll sawed Christmas ornaments from a set of 20 that he made using Various designs with small intricate cuts.

James Root brought a homemade circle cutting jig which will cut circles from 2" – 20"

Raffle

Every month we hold a raffle for members for woodworking prizes. Tickets are 1 for $1 or 6 for $5.

This month's prizes were:

- Double sided calipers – Sandi Burnett
- Granite surface plate – Pete Yavner

Program

The September demo was given by Steve Jenkins on fabricating and edge banding a round table top. He showed us step by step how to make the pattern and use the router and shaper to cut the edge pieces. He then showed us how to assemble the edges and attach them to the round table, including clamp placement for drying.

The October demo will be given by Gary Turman on fraction less layout techniques and minute measurement – how and why?.
