If you have any suggestions or requests for programs, please contact Munawar at munawarsoomro@hotmail.com

NTWA Library

The new NTWA Library bookcase has been built and was unveiled at the October show. The original bookcases were transformed into a self contained system and blends in with the décor at the Party Barn.

Show and Tell

Pete Yavner

Brought pictures of a walnut slab coffee table. The Walnut was sitting in his shop for some time. He sanded it down and finished it.

Gary Bobenhausen

Brought a window valance he made, which was finished with Armor Seal. He used figure 8 fasteners to mount it to the wall.

Dan Chenault

Brought in some piece of quilted maple that he plans to book match and make a coffee table out of.

Dan Puliese

Showed a toy wrecker with toy truck in tow that has a real hoist that works. Includes little people

Larry Maughn

Brought various pen blanks with different designs, an "X and O" design, one that is clear resin with prickly pear cactus fibers inside

Steve Yauch

He is doing a restoration of a windup gramophone. Brought some of the details to show how he replicated them along with the jig he made to allow him to cut the small pieces on the table saw.

G.T. Robinson

Showed a pepper mill he made out of cherry with 5 or 6 coats of wipe on poly.

Thad Burnett

Brought some party trays, one in the shape of the state of Texas and made of pine and mesquite and one more shallow football shape made of pine.

The winners of the $10 Show and Tell prize were Larry Maughn and Steve Yauch.
